

NOCCUNDRRA HOTEL

GROUP TRAVEL PRODUCT SHEET

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Noccundra Hotel lies at the heart of the South West pastoral district. It is the last surviving structure of the Noccundra township, first surveyed in 1885. The Hotel is built of Sandstone that was mined locally and transported by Camel Train. Situated just off the Natural Sciences Loop, Noccundra is a favoured stop, providing food, drink, and access to free camping. Let your group relax and soak up the history of this heritage-listed hotel while enjoying a morning tea or lunch. The hotel also caters for packed group lunches with prior notice. Bookings for group meals are essential.

Facilities: Accommodation (Dongas & Campsites); Bar; Dining Room; Coach Parking; Public Toilets; Group catering for morning tea and lunch; Eftpos; Fuel
